Did you know???? You Can see Linda's Show on PBS Channel 5 on Saturdays @ 7:00AM!

MacPhee Workshop's Creative Director, Linda MacPhee, is a designer, who besides doing two collections a year, also turns her creations into patterns for the home sewer. In testimony to the popularity of her patterns we are now the largest pattern company in Canada. She has degrees in textiles as well as teaching. This combined with her love of sewing has endeared her to devoted fans who have been inspired through her sewing classes, speaking engagements, television/radio appearances, newspaper columns, as well as her own video productions. She has produced five critically acclaimed videos that capture her creativity and contagious enthusiasm. Linda has also completed the third season of her own 26 episode television series, Sew Much Fun! It is currently aired on HGTV - Canada, ACCESS Television Network, the Knowledge Network, and in the USA on PBS. She is a dynamic and humorous speaker who has made presentations to many conventions (both as keynote and for spouses' programs). Her approach to sewing is similar to her overall approach to life: Let's have some fun!!
